YACHT DESIGNERS & SURVEYORS ASSOCIATION

DON'T MISS THE 2010 YDSA ANNUAL CONFERENCE ON 18TH MARCH

The Yacht Designers and Surveyors Association are holding their annual conference at the Royal Institution of Naval Architects in London on Thursday 18th March 2010.

The conference focuses on Yacht Design changes since the 1930's and the effects on surveying. The event begins at 9.15am, when a number of industry speakers will discuss modern British Boat Building, Wooden boats, GRP and FRP and possible influences on the Insurer's Perspective, concluding in an Open Forum at 4.15pm led by YDSA Chairman Ted Spears.

Current YDSA President Richard Ayres comments:

"This long standing annual event is one of the best for networking, dissemination of ideas and professional development available in the Industry".

All delegates attending the conference are entitled to 3 CPD points - continuing professional development accreditations.

The RINA is at 10 Upper Belgrave Street, London, SW1X 8BQ. The conference is open to non-members, members and subscribers with lunch and refreshments provided. For more information or to reserve a place contact Kay Greenwood on 01730 266430 or email kay@ybdsa.co.uk.
